MEMBER NEWS

Liz A. Duncan-Burge / Zanoza

We have welcomed Sue Breaz's Dymok (Twin Elms Dymok V Dana Dan) into our home after Sue's death. Dymok joins his littermate, Tzigan (Twin Elms Galahad V Dana Dan), who we got last Spring from Sue. Both are doing well and Dymok recently obtained his ASFA certification to compete in lure coursing trials. Vivaldi (Coverdale's Vivaldi at Zanoza) took 1st place in Open at SLASH's ASFA trial in Grey Summit, MO on 03/19/17, getting him closer to his ASFA Field Champion title. We are looking forward to getting these boys out more at upcoming lure coursing trials and you may even see our girl, Valkyrie (Coverdale's Valkyrie at Zanoza), at a conformation show or two as she has decided she is much too pretty to lure course.....sigh.....girls!

Kristen Suhrenbrock / RunTuff

Whiskey finished his CH and DC. He is now DC RiverRun Avalon Whiskey in the Jar Oxota SC, RN, CGC owned by Karla and myself.

Dee Swan & Penny Keiffer / Edenrock & Galaron.

It's certainly been an interesting and informative last few months. Although I used to be a board member I'd let my membership lapse, and forgot some of the rules. So we spent almost all of last year running around the country, promoting our GCHB WINDRIFT NOBODY DOES IT BETTER, Carly, and watching her numbers go up in Canine Chronicle until she was number 4. However when the MBC rankings came out her name wasn't on the list. Panicking I called KC only to find out that only the first owners listed are counted in the running for the award, and I'm the first owner. That has been rectified and my application has been sent in but that was a hard lesson to swallow. Dee had eye surgery for cataracts and the first one went fine. A couple of weeks later they did the other eye, but that time she wasn't quite so lucky. She's doing okay now, and getting better daily, but it's a slow process and her vision in that eye is still cloudy. And dummy me, well I tried taking trash out in the dark, ran into Rocky Raccoon, and had to go in for 10 IM and 5 SQ rabies shots all at once. Not something I'd recommend any time soon, and I still need to go back twice more. But as my son says it's better than foaming at the mouth and getting shot. Have a great spring everyone and happy showing to all.

Gary & Mickey Nash / Frostfire

Mickey fell on the ice and broke her hip. We are all wishing her a complete and speedy recovery.

Jon & Nancy Reimer / Windrift

In February we attended our first shows of this year. Daisy (Ch Windrift Night & Day) was BOS both days for 2 points each day. Dory (Windrift Light My Fire) came along and won the 9-12 puppy bitch class both days.

In March we took Rebel (Windrift Against All Odds) to both shows at Logansport. He was WD both days for two five point majors from the 12-18 month class. The first day he was BOS and the second day he was BOB over 3 specials. That gives him 13 points, 3 majors, 2 BOB wins, and a specialty Best in Sweeps at 13 months of age.

Now we're looking forward to our first lure coursing events.

Ameera & Kevin Hoffman and Raphael Finkelstein / Mystique

Here at Mystique, we have tried showing Spirit a couple UKC shows, and sti find he isn't a happy camper. We have chosen not to show him any longer. We also showed our puppy Bashert. He earned his UKC Championship in 4 shows and a Group 2 and 3. We look forward to some upcoming local shows and then there is the National. We plan to show at the UKC PREMIER in June. There is the MBC Specialty also upcoming. Echelon was #2 Borzoi for 2016 in UKC. We received a Top 10 invitation. Hope to attend.

Cindy & Mike Michalak / Bon-Ton

More excitement at the Bon-Ton Borzoi headquarters this past quarter. As previously reported, my boy ended 2016 as the #1 male owner handled Borzoi. As such, we were invited to compete in the National Owner Handled Series finals, held in Orlando, FL in December 2016. I am over the moon to let the MBC members know that one of their own, GCHB Lagniappe Cajun Zydeco Bon-Ton won Best of Breed among very tough competition. You could have knocked me over with a feather when Col. Joe Purkhiser pointed to us and clear as day said "BEST OF BREED" and I have a picture to prove it where my mouth dropped open in disbelief.

When we got home from Florida, Zenda, who had come in heat before we left, was just about in her prime. It was at that point I made a last minute decision to breed Zydeco and Zenda. All we could do is count the days and sit and wait it out.

January rolled around and I entered a local show where Zydeco picked up his remaining point needed to complete his Bronze Grand Champion title by winning Best of Breed for a 5 point major, followed by an Owner Handled Group 2 placement.

It was finally time to have an ultrasound done on Zenda with high hopes for a smallish litter. Well, I certainly got that when I was given the news there was only one puppy. While I thought how sad it would be for one puppy to be born without playmates, I was ecstatic that a puppy was on the way. I had already asked our good friends Dee & Greg Jones if they wanted to lease Zenda and be listed as co-breeders, which they did. I was just very sorry that a little one wasn't born for them to cherish and spoil as all of the Lagniappe Hounds are.

On February 20, 2017, a bouncing baby boy was born via C-section and we were able to view the entire surgery thru a picture window. When the vet asked what sex I wanted, I said male but I would be happy with anything she looked at me and said "well...it is a boy"! I cried so hard. His name is one you have never heard before and probably never will again. I combined 3 names of my past Bon-Ton boys: Zackery, Zoltar and Zebulon and named him Zak-tar-u-lon. His registered name is Bon-Ton's Lagniappe Zaktarulon. My hopes are high for a grand future with him.

Karen & Kalen Dumke / Nonsuch

Our Nonsuch Red Cloud, "Lakota" (Ch Borscana Contraband X Ch Nonsuch Lac Du Bay) took a major in Jan at the Greyslake, Illinois shows so is well on his way to his championship. His sister Nonsuch Sacajawea is also pointed but would do so much better if she would stop gaiting like a GSD! Back to training class for her! We also have two more litters sisters that will be out soon, Nonsuch Native Pottery and Nonsuch Keshena. Looking forward to seeing everyone at the upcoming shows!!
